Telephone Q 90. 45 St. [J] The Journal feels that it can safely recommend The Holy City to its readers along the branch roads as one of the best attractions of the year. It will be well worth a trip to Columbus to see. [J] For six weeks O. H. Buschman has been suffering severe pain in his eyes, the sight of which he lost several years ago. The trouble has grown gradually worse until it is feared he will be compelled to have one of them removed. [J] Mrs. Gillespie of West Hill was in Columbus the latter part of last week to see his wife who had undergone an operation. When he returned home Friday there was assurance that Mrs. Gillespie's recovery would be rapid and complete. [J] While helping to feed a sheller at his home Monday afternoon Frank Buck came nearly being caught in the feed carrier. While stooping over to pick out something from the carrier his sleeve caught on the carrier and only by a chain belt slipping off stopping the machine was he saved from being pulled into it. His arm is badly bruised and Thursday evening was painting him considerable, but it is thought will not be serious unless blood poison should set in. It was a close call indeed.—St. Edward Sun. [J] Love letters as a rule look bad in print and their publication is seldom justifiable. However, as a warning to young men to show them what not to write, the young lady in the case (who recently married another fellow) permits the Journal to publish the following letter, verbatim and litterim: [J] Miss Mary. [J] I am taking the liberty to grant me an application to exchange letters with you it is so long ago since I have heard the favor to see you I was at Columbus every little chance I could save for the hope to see you my greatest wish in this world is to win your cordship. I beg you to allow your kindness to equal my mind. O Mary please answer me on this letter and I beg you thousand times to except my application of your house please answer me on this letter. He getting left on you is more than my heart can stand. I have always hoped what ever "last hour must come good after all" so please fulfill my desire. Please answer me. Please receive my few words welcome very respectfully.

ALFALFA SEED

We have the best, cleanest alfalfa seed that can be procured in this country.

This Seed is Grown in Western Nebraska

We have given this alfalfa seed business a great deal of attention and study and know that our seed is right. If you expect to sow this spring or fall, now is the time to buy your alfalfa seed. The supply of fancy seed is limited. Leave your orders now—later you will have to take what you can get.

We also have a large stock of Grass Seeds—such as Timothy, White Clover, Red Clover, Red Top Millet, Cane Seed, Blue Grass, etc., etc, and a little later will have plenty of Seed Corn.

Garden Seeds That Grow...

We carry a full line of Garden Seeds, both in bulk and packages and several varieties of good onion sets. Make out a list of your wants in garden seeds and let us put them up for you before the spring rush begins.
